ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor P.K. Katti and Professor V. Ramakrishna for suggesting the problem and encouraging me at the initial stages. My thanks are due to Dr. L.M. Tiwari for valuable guidance, constructive criticism and helping me to finalize and submit the thesis. Thanks are also due to Dr. O. Prakash for the cooperation and help rendered by him.

— I am also thankful to Professor M.S. Sodha, Dean of Post-Graduate Studies and Research, Professor K.L. Chopra, Dean, Faculty of Science and Professor C.L. Mehta, Head of the Department of Physics, for providing me facilities in the department and for their constant stimulation during the investigation.

It is a great pleasure to acknowledge the cooperation of Mr. D.K. Pandya during the preparation of thesis. My thanks are due to Mr. V.N. Sharma for efficient typing of the thesis and Mr. N.S. Gupta for preparing the diagrams.

Special thanks go to author's wife for her inspiration.
